

A SOUL'S FINAL JOURNEY

A WORD FROM THE PLAYWRIGHT AND DIRECTOR STEVEN R. JAMES

---

A Soul's Final Journey is my debut as both the Playwright and Director. A Soul's Final Journey is a story that can only be told as Steven R James can tell it. This hard hitting story is about a man named Andrew Paige Turner who everyone calls Paige, traveling backwards to relive a very traumatic time in his life. As the story unfolds you will see how people impact other people's lives. We watch as one person's trauma and anger coupled with an other person's drug abuse is directed at Paige. We see what past abuse can do and just how this effects Paige. We also see how one man's kindness and an other man's love helps Paige through this extremely difficult time. This is about how the good and bad can effect us all and last a life time. So with out giving away to much of the story. I am going to move on to say thank you to those who bought ad space in the program you are reading. Your generosity is a blessing. A special thank you to Christ The Cornerstone Church who allowed us to use their rec hall for auditions and rehearsals. The Studio@620 for getting us on the books as quick and they did and their tech support for the show. A big thank you to my cast who worked very hard to bring their characters to life. I am truly grateful to you my audience and new fans for buying a ticket to see this show. I am truly blessed to have each and everyone of you here.

I am going to wrap up and say keep an eye out for both the play to be published on paperback and in the very near future the full length novel version of Andrew Paige Turner's epic story to be published. I now invite you to sit back and enjoy the play.

Steven R James.
